Insurance Fraud, Arson and Special Investigation Unit Support

The rising cost of medical, automotive, homeowner, commercial, health, life and disability insurance in Florida and nationwide is directly linked to the ever-increasing incidence of insurance fraud.

Staged automobile accidents, arson, “phantom” thefts, and other methods designed to fraudulently obtain insurance benefits are common insurance fraud examples. Even the simple exaggeration of a loss is insurance fraud.

Marcus & Myers attorneys are experienced in handling insurance fraud cases in all lines of coverage, including health, life, disability, medical, auto, and property & casualty.

We assist with coverage matters for commercial, personal, first party or third party claims.

Insurers and SIU divisions seek our assistance with the following types of fraud:

- Auto insurance fraud
- Health care fraud
- Insurance agent crimes
- Insurance claim fraud
- Insurance premium fraud
- Insurer insolvency fraud
- Medical fraud rings
- Personal injury protection (PIP) fraud
- Property damage fraud
- Unauthorized insurance entity fraud
- Underwriting fraud
- Workers’ comp fraud

Our legal services in regard to insurance fraud matters include but are not limited to:

- Evaluate special investigations
- Conduct examinations under oath
- Assess insurance policy coverage language
- Draft “reservations of rights” letters
- Obtain non-waiver agreements
- Coordinate with expert insurance fraud investigators and law enforcement
- Initiate actions and file counterclaims for declaratory relief and rescission where appropriate

In the area of medical insurance fraud, we can assist in the evaluation of matters including:

- Fraudulent bills
- Patient record manipulation
- Billing for medical services or supplies not rendered or medically unnecessary
- Inappropriate referrals to diagnostic facilities
